Dear Parents, Students, Staff and Friends of the College.

Welcome back to school and we hope you all had a good break with your family. We welcome Mrs Rass as Pre-Primary 2 teacher this term, Mr Stolp back from his long service leave and all our new students and their families and hope they soon feel part of our School Community.

We started the term off by celebrating the 100 years of ANZAC by spending the entire day learning about different things associated with ANZAC. I would like to thank Adam Slot, a parent currently serving in our forces, for being part of our ANZAC service this year. It was wonderful to go into each classroom and see what they were learning about. The smell of ANZAC biscuits cooking was exciting and I even got to taste one! Our choir sang at the Quinns Rocks RSL Sub Branch ANZAC Dawn Service and our school representatives laid a wreath. Thank you to Mrs Randall for preparing the choir and to the students and parents who got up early to join the service.

It is a busy term with Dance Sport, excursions, incursions, Mother’s Day activities, Reading Cafés, NAPLAN, cross-country and tabloids sports.

“They will speak of the glorious splendour of your majesty, And I will meditate on your wonderful works.” Psalm 145:5

Over the ANZAC weekend I was lucky enough to spend some time at Walyunga National Park. I spotted a huge bird sitting in a solitary tree overlooking a valley. As I approached, the large bird leaped from the tree and soared out over the valley, the golden streaks in its feathers shimmering in the morning sun. Its immense size and beauty filled me with wonder. I felt privileged to witness this magnificent demonstration of God’s awesome creativity.

Creation displays God’s “wondrous works” (Ps. 145:5); and when we stop to meditate on those works, we can’t help but be awed as our minds and spirits are moved to reflect on the character of the God who created them.

That mighty bird told me a story of the creative genius of our mighty God. So does the flitting songbird, the doe with her playful fawn, the pounding surf, and delicate little flowers such as bachelor’s-button and poppies. In the most unexpected moments and out-of-the-way places the Lord shines His glory in this world in order to reveal Himself to us. Those serendipitous moments are opportunities to “meditate . . . on [His] wondrous works” (v.5).

In our busy term let’s not forget to spend some time remembering what a great God we serve.

Kindy
A Hundred Years From Now

When the playing of the bugle sent a shiver down my spine
When I felt a sense of duty and stepped up to join the line
A song was sung, my heart was young, the ship it sailed away
When my mother stood there crying and I had no words to say
When I wore my country’s coat of arms to pledge a solemn vow
I didn’t think they’d honour me a hundred years from now

When I landed in an ambush on that distant foreign shore
When I saw the bullets flying and I heard the cannon roar
I turned my head, my friend lay dead, it happened so damn fast
When I made it through the mayhem of that terrifying blast
When I managed to survive that day... still I don’t know how
I didn’t think they’d tell the tale a hundred years from now

When the battle raged forever and adversity was rife
When the courage and the sacrifice were daily facts of life
As darkness fell, it seemed like hell, but mateship got us through
When nothing else made any sense... that’s the flag we flew
When thoughts of home revived my strength and wiped my bloody brow
I didn’t think they’d call me ‘brave’ a hundred years from now

When I felt a chill that morning – when my heart beat like a drum
When the captain gave his orders and I knew the time had come
No glory there, just pure despair, my best is what I gave
When they wrote ‘lest we forget’ upon the headstone of my grave
When, beside my cross, the children of the future stop to bow
My spirit will remain alive a hundred years from now

When the playing of the bugle sends a shiver down your spine
When you realise that your qualities are just the same as mine
From dreamtime land to coastal sand, the city to the sprawl
When the essence of my legacy unites Australians all
When Anzac legend shines a light on all who make that vow
With pride, the world will know their name a hundred years from now

Reading Café

A big thank you to Miss Lowis & Mrs Randall for sharing your favourite books with students during the first two Reading Cafes held in the 1st Term. Miss Lowis’ costume certainly helped get us in the mood for celebrating Harmony day and the diversity of cultures.

Our Reading Café in MAY will have fun with Poetry!

Mrs Eva is our special guest who will entertain us with a popular book of the same theme.

This event takes place in the Primary School Library on TUESDAY morning, 5th May at 8.00am sharp, before school starts.

All Primary students are welcome to attend.

Be on time to enjoy an early refreshment!

High School Kiss and Drive
Students to wait for parents to arrive

Primary School Kiss and Drive
Students to wait for parents to arrive

Entrance Only

Exit Only

Thank you for your patience in using our car park.

The large number of students at the three colleges and the lack of available parking spaces has unfortunately resulted in severely restricted traffic flow at peak times. In examining case studies of schools with similar traffic issues, the most effective solutions resulted when a culture was developed wherein everyone adheres to a ‘Kiss and Drive’ process. Students should wait for their parents to arrive rather than having their parents wait for them. With mobile phones it is now possible for students to text their parents to pick them up when they are ready.

Please assist us further by:

- Following the one-way arrows (see above).
- Not parking on the footpath.
- Not driving over the footpath.
  (Parking on or driving over footpaths is illegal and you may be fined. It also exacerbates the traffic problems and increases the risks to pedestrians.
- Not using Peter Moyes Anglican Community School’s car park.

We encourage everyone, where possible, to play their part in improving traffic flow around the schools.
Book Fair News

To celebrate National Family Reading Month in May, our school will be hosting a Book Fair in the Primary Library with the theme Kings, Queens and Castles: Enter the Kingdom of Books! This exciting reading event takes place from Tuesday, 26th – Friday, 29th May after school from 3 - 4 pm each day. Students will have the opportunity to browse and purchase a variety of new books each day, and fun stationery will also be available for purchase on the Friday afternoon. Please join us at any of these events to celebrate reading with your children!

Please note that a special preview of the Book Fair has been arranged for parents only of Pre-Kindy, Kindy, Pre-Primary and Year 1 students on Tuesday, 26th May from 8:30 – 9:30 in the morning and from 2:15 in the afternoon.

Volunteers please!

If there are any parents willing to give up an hour of their time to assist at any of these Book Fair events, or to help with the making of décor, please give your name and contact number to the Primary Librarian Kathy van de Leur or to the front office, with the dates and times which will best suit you. (PPP hours apply)

Read More in May Reading Competition!

For the chance to win some great prizes, join our school as we participate in the Scholastic Read More In May Challenge. This competition encourages students to read with their families, for at least 10 minutes every day during the month of May.

To take part, your child simply writes down on the supplied Reading Log, the number of minutes spent reading on each day in May. Then from June 1-15, tally up the total minutes spent reading in May and enter this online for a chance to win some great prizes – your family could win $250 worth of book vouchers and our school could win $600 worth of books!

Visit www.scholastic.com.au/nfrm for competition details and some handy resources, including tips for family reading and fun activities.

Happy Reading!

Parent Well with the Mood Meter Program – Building Emotional Intelligence

Join Michael Grose for our 4-week online parenting course Parent Well with the Mood Meter Program

Help your kids learn to manage their emotions, improve their mental health and be happier.

Parent Well with the Mood Meter Program is the first in a series of online courses to teach you how to develop emotional intelligence in your kids:

- Mood Meter is a practical tool developed by the research team at Yale Center for Emotional Intelligence
- Gives parents and kids a common language to talk about feelings
- Empower kids to recognise and then respond to how they feel
- Teach kids self-awareness and put them in control of their emotions
- The Mood Meter is great for kids that are visual learners, particularly boys
- Suitable for all age groups

The 4-week Parent Well with the Mood Meter Program starts on 3 May.

Join now for $57 to take advantage FREE access to Parentingideas Club before the course starts on 3 May.

Or why not join Parentingideas Club for $179 annual membership and get access to Parent Well with the Mood Meter Program plus the CLUB plus other courses planned during the next 12 months.
